

I am very upset to hear that my local station, WGGB ABC 40, is going to be airing "Stolen Honor," a biased documentary in such a tense political time. I had hoped that at least my sources for news and media would attempt to be unbiased and fair-minded. Please reconsider this decision; I will be forced to not watch this station any longer if you go on with this plan.